Perspectives on Organised Crime (SECU0046)

Description
The aim of this module is to provide students with an overview and understanding of the phenomenon of organised crime, by providing them with an outline of its history, various manifestations, broader issues of definition, practice and theory.

The different ways in which organised crime manifests itself in different countries will be discussed. A number of special topics will also be examined, human trafficking, drug trafficking, cybercrime, and the historical cases of the crime-terror nexus thus providing students with an up-to-date picture of the organised crime landscape and the pervasive influence of organised crime worldwide.

Key information
- Year: 2018/19
- Credit value: 15 (150 study hours)
- Delivery: UG L5, Campus-based
- Reading List: View on UCL website
- Tutor: Dr Ella Cockbain
- Term: Term 1
- Timetable: View on UCL website

Assessment

- Coursework: 100%

Find out more

For more information about the department, programmes, relevant open days and to browse other modules, visit ucl.ac.uk

Disclaimer: All information correct as of December 2018. Please note that aspects of the module may be subject to change. UCL will make best efforts to inform applicants of major changes.